

The sky above Interlaken

Under the glass roof

A glass roof lies above the living area of the Pyramid Suite. On clear nights you can see the Pole Star and the constellations that never set over Interlaken: the Big and Little Dipper, Cassiopeia and Cepheus.

How to find the Pole Star: extend the back edge of the Big Dipper about five times. Through the night the sky slowly turns around it.